

Inclement Weather Policy and Practices: Church services continue
Parishioners urged to put safety first in deciding whether to come

We do not want anyone to take uncomfortable risks to attend church, and scheduled program and worship leaders should feel comfortable simply staying at home if they prefer not to venture out.

But please know that we will gather for Word and Sacrament at our regularly-appointed times, barring some disaster. We will combine or reduce our programming based on available leadership and participation.

Brooks Graebner, Rector